UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. RASHAAD DEON PILGRIM, 2:17CR00144

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
September 20, 2019

At his revocation hearing from June 13, 2019, Pilgrim appeared before Your Honor and the parties agreed to a last chance agreement to include modifications of supervision. Due to unstable nature surrounding the pending violations, the parties recommended, and the Court ordered, Pilgrim reside at the Residential Reentry Center for a term up to 180 days.

On July 18, 2019, in violation of code 112, Use of Alcohol, Pilgrim submitted a positive alcohol test with a reading of .02% BAC at 4:12 p.m. and a second test with a reading of .04% BAC at 4:25 p.m. During a home contact at the RRC, Pilgrim admitted to consuming some drinks prior to returning to the facility but did not think it would show up. He was instructed to remain sober and refrain from alcohol during his stay at the RRC.

On September 18, 2019, in violation of code 309, Unaccountability, Pilgrim was found to be unaccountable for 20 hours. During the week of August 29, 2019, through September 4, 2019, Pilgrim only worked 28 hours, despite being signed out of the facility for 48 hours. On this same date, the RRC provided the undersigned officer with a program failure report indicating he was being program failed from the RRC and was no longer welcome to reside there.

Based upon the offender's conduct detailed in this petition, it appears Pilgrim is not taking advantage of the opportunities made available to him to succeed on supervision. Despite the parties looking to work with Pilgrim, he continues to squander his chance at redemption so much so that he is removed from the RRC. The probation office recommends the issuance of a warrant to initiate revocation proceedings and recommend the offender remain in custody pending revocation proceedings. Pilgrim is viewed as a danger to the community and a risk of nonappearance; and there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure the safety of the community or the offender's appearance in court.

Respectfully submitted,
